About COWBOY COLLECTORS GATHERING - Originally promoted by Larry Howard, a highly honored, well-respected cowboy collector & great friend. Larry had a good eye for extremely unique cowboy antique items & he had a way of finding some of the most extraordinary pieces in his hunt. After years of collecting, Larry built a fabulous well-admired cowboy collection. The 1st show took place in 2005 with Larry & his long-time collector friends gathering at the Prescott Frontier Days Rodeo Grounds on a Wednesday in January. What began with a few friends gathering on a Wednesday to buy, sell & trade western collectibles quickly became an ANNUAL ONE-DAY EVENT! Since 2005, numerous cowboy traders look forward to gathering each January in the small town of Prescott to buy, sell & trade quality Western & Native American Antiques & Collectibles! Larry Howard, unfortunately, passed in 2016. Larry loved his show! So, without hesitation & with great honor, Danny Pearson, Darryl & Tracy Abernathy gladly took the position of hosting the annual COWBOY COLLECTORS GATHERING SHOW each January on a Wednesday from 9 am - 5 pm.
