Jackson Browne has written and performed some of the most literate and moving songs in popular music and has defined a genre of songwriting charged with honesty, emotion, and personal politics. He was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Songwriter's Hall of Fame in 2007.

His debut album came out on David Geffen's Asylum Records in 1972. Since then, he has released fourteen studio albums, four collections of live performances, two "best of" compilations, two DVDs, and several single recordings. Jackson's new studio album, "Downhill From Everywhere" is set for worldwide release on July 23, 2021.

"We are excited to bring another classic rock legend to Northern Arizona," said Sheila Anderson, Spectra Marketing Manager for the Findlay Toyota Center.

This show supports his new album Downhill From Everywhere, available worldwide on July 23 via Inside Recordings. Last month, Browne released "My Cleveland Heart," the new single from Downhill From Everywhere.

Last month, Browne released "My Cleveland Heart," the new single from Downhill From Everywhere. The music video, directed by Alissa Torvinen Kouame, features a cameo by Phoebe Bridgers. In describing the clip, Rolling Stone said, "It's fitting for Bridgers — who has cited Browne as an influence and recently enlisted him to duet on 'Kyoto' — to receive his heart, almost like Browne is passing down the singer-songwriter torch."
